Call for Proposals: Design of the Talent Development Award

The Talent Development Council of the University of Dunaújváros announces a student competition for the design of the UOD Talent Development Award:

1) Design of the Talent Development Award

Design of the Talent Development Award

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The University of Dunaújváros (hereinafter referred to as the "Announcing Institution" or the "University") invites applications from its students for the design of the Talent Development Award.

Purpose of the competition

The Talent Development Council/management of the University of Dunaújváros (hereinafter referred to as the "University") is establishing the "Talent Development Award" as a form of recognition. The purpose of the award is to recognise and pay tribute to the dedicated work of lecturers, researchers, office holders, mentor teachers, professional organisers and students whose outstanding contributions have achieved sustained, excellent results in the University's talent development activities, preparation for the University's Student Scientific Conference (TDK), talent development within specialised colleges, or priority university talent development programmes.

Key requirements for the award design:

- The task is to create an original design for a commemorative medal/plaque.
- The design must take into account the UOD's visual identity and design language, and should reflect the spirit and purpose of the award.
- The use of Artificial Intelligence is not permitted during the design process.

Eligibility

Applications may be submitted by students who have active student status at the University of Dunaújváros and who agree to be bound by the conditions of the competition.

Application deadline

27 November 2026, 12:00 noon

Applications received after the submission deadline will not be evaluated by the Evaluation Committee. The Evaluation Committee may exclude applications that do not meet the formal or substantive requirements without providing reasons.

Deadline for evaluation of applications

4 December 2026, 12:00 noon

Announcement of results and award ceremony

11 December 2026

- First place: voucher worth HUF 50,000
- Second place: voucher worth HUF 30,000
- Third place: voucher worth HUF 20,000

Evaluation process

The University of Dunaújváros will notify the winners of the date and method of receiving their prizes using the e-mail address (or telephone number) provided on the application form.

The person named as the applicant on the application form is entitled to receive the competition prize. If there is more than one eligible person, they are responsible for settling any matters relating to the prize among themselves. Based on the submitted entries, the University of Dunaújváros reserves the right to amend the allocation and form of prizes and awards, and undertakes to cover the taxes payable in connection with the prizes.

The University of Dunaújváros reserves the right to acquire ownership of the usage rights to the selected entries. The prize awarded in the competition shall be deemed consideration for the transfer of the usage rights.

The official announcement of the results and presentation of the prizes will take place on 11 December in the University's Rector's Council Room.

Copyright provisions

The Announcing Institution will enter into a separate copyright declaration with the winning applicants (1st–3rd place), covering the following:

- The submitted entry of each winning applicant (1st–3rd place) must not infringe the rights of any third party, and no third party may hold rights that would prevent or otherwise restrict the Announcing Institution from acquiring rights to the submitted entries. Applicants undertake not to use any royalty-bearing elements in creating their entries.
- By submitting the application documentation, each winning applicant (1st–3rd place) consents to the Announcing Institution using the submitted application documentation freely, on an exclusive basis, without territorial restriction, at any time, and without any obligation to pay further remuneration, including the right to make it available to third parties and to publish it, for the purposes of promoting the competition and the University.
- All rights relating to the submitted application documentation and the entry (design product) included in the application shall belong to the University of Dunaújváros on an exclusive basis, without territorial or time restrictions and without further remuneration. The University may freely use the application documentation and the entry without indicating the applicant's name, including producing and reproducing the entry, communicating it to the public, and modifying or adapting it.

Miscellaneous provisions

Any questions regarding the competition and its rules may be sent to the Announcing Institution at DUEKASZK@uniduna.hu. The Announcing Institution reserves the right to withdraw the competition at any time without giving reasons. It also reserves the right to supplement or amend the conditions set out in this call for proposals, or the competition itself, at a later date, provided that any such change makes the conditions more favourable to applicants.

The applicant declares that they bear full responsibility for the declaration constituting a prerequisite for participation in this competition.
