(1) Determination of the tuition fee:

a. The annual tuition fee for the first academic year of a student (new enrolment, transfer, change of degree/course program) is accepted by the Maintainer within the framework of these Regulations - in euros for foreign students - and is determined by the Director General for Economic Affairs based on the Tuition Fee Regulations. The amount of the tuition fee is set out in Tables 2(a) to (c) of Annex 1 to these Regulations, broken down by level of training and by degree/course program.

b. In the case of state-funded scholarship programs, the amount of support always equals the amount determined for the same program at the University under the self-financed funding form. An exception applies to those state-funded scholarship programs where the amount determined for the self-financed funding form exceeds the legally prescribed maximum support amount for the state-funded scholarship program. In such cases, the amount of the state scholarship is set at the legal maximum, while the amount determined for the self-financed tuition remains unchanged.

c. The University publishes the annual tuition fee for all announced bachelor's and master's programs, as well as higher education vocational training, in the Higher Education Admissions Guide.

d. In the second and subsequent years, the tuition fee may increase by no more than the amount of the previous academic year's tuition fee adjusted by the consumer price index published by the Central Statistical Office for the previous year.

e. The condition for the enrollment of students admitted or transferred into a self-financed program is the signing of the student contract and the one-time payment of the tuition fee.

f. The tuition fee payable by students enrolling in, transferring to or changing courses for undergraduate or master's programs shall be paid in a lump-sum as set out in Table 2 in Annex 1.

g. The condition for the enrollment and registration of students participating in higher education, higer vocational education training and specialized further training is the lump-sum payment of the tuition fee determined as set out in Table 2 in Annex 1.

h. A student participating in a higher-year Hungarian-language program, who submits a request in the study system and has no other liabilities toward the University, may apply to pay the tuition fee in installments. An applicant admitted to the Hungarian-language program is entitled to request installment payments starting from the second semester of their program.

(2) For subsequent semesters following enrollment, the deadline for payment of the tuition fee for students registered for an active semester is the last working day before the start of the course registration period for that semester. Deviations from these dates may be made on a case-by-case basis, considering the schedule of the given semester.

(3) Table 2 of Annex 1 of these Regulations shows the cost of one credit per semester per year of registration, transfer, and change of degree/course program, broken down by level of training and by degree/course program.

(4) If a student takes a subject - not belonging to his/her training – more than 10% specified in § 49(2a) of the NHE Act., the subject registration fee shall be calculated from the amount in HUF per credit as specified in Table 2 of Annex 1, and paid by (2).

(5) In the case of students enrolled before 1 September 2010, the 0-credit subject (e.g. physical education) required by the model curriculum shall be included in the tuition fee as paid, provided that it is not a second repeated subject (third occasion for taking the subject up). In the case of a third take-up of a subject, the tuition fee is set out in Table 3 of Annex 1 to these Regulations.

(6) The University shall conclude a written contract with the student at the time of enrolment. The contract shall specify the fees to be paid by the student in the first academic year and the terms of payment. The contract shall be kept for 10 years. In the case of foreign students, more detailed rules are set out in § 17.

(7) The tuition fee payable by the student may be assumed by the employer by completing and submitting the invoice request declaration available in the Neptun system (signed with the company's authorized signature). The employer shall pay the tuition fee amount by bank transfer to the bank account number indicated on the invoice issued by the University.

(8) Payments to the University must be made in the currency specified in the call; if the call is issued in euros, payment is to be made from the foreign currency collection account, and if issued in Hungarian forints, from the forint collection account.

b. If the Student has registered for courses but has not paid the tuition fee, and suspends or terminates their student status within one month after the start of the current semester (by October 1 or March 1), they are still required to pay 30% of the tuition fee by the last day of the second month of the semester (October 31 or March 31).

c. If the Student has registered for courses, paid the tuition fee, and suspends or terminates their student status after one month from the start of the current semester, then a prorated portion of 70% of the paid tuition fee (taking into account the remaining weeks of the academic term) shall be refunded to the Student upon request.

d. If the Student has registered for courses but has not paid the tuition fee, and suspends or terminates their student status after one month from the start of the current semester, they are required to pay 30% of the full tuition fee plus the prorated portion of the remaining 70% (taking into account the remaining weeks of the academic term).

e. If the Service Provider does not start the training specified in the student contract or if the training is suspended due to the fault of the Service Provider, the student shall be refunded the full amount of the tuition fee paid.

f. If the student status is terminated due to the death of the student, the pro rata portion of 70% of the tuition fee paid, calculated up to the date of the death, shall be refunded according to the rules of the probate procedure.

(10) In the case of students - own employees - participating in self-funded training, the employer may grant a discount on the fees and cover the tuition fee of the training as a means of support for studies related to the job, as provided for in the study contract.

(11) In exceptional cases, the Rector may, based on a proposal from the University's Student Council, grant a discount on the fees and cover the tuition fee for students who are participating in self-funded training.

(12) In the cases regulated in (7), a Refund application shall be submitted via the Neptun system.

(13) The fees for courses aimed at acquiring partial knowledge pursuant to § 21 (1) d) of the Study and Examination Rules and Regulations, and the fees to be paid are determined by the Rector, or in the case of a delegated authority, by the Academic Vice-Rector, based on the proposal of the RSFB, the agreement concluded in the scholarship or mobility program, or in the case of a summer university, the organizational unit responsible for international relations.

Student payments may only be made against the cover available in the individual collective account and up to the limit of the cover. It is the student's responsibility to ensure the cover. Any amount not used in the individual collective account can be transferred back to the student's bank account.

(2) The amount collected from the fees paid by the students may be used by the annual budget approved by the Senate.

The fee covers the costs of the application and admission process and is non-refundable to the student, except if the University withdraws the program during the application period and the applicant requests a refund of the registraion fee.

(2) The condition for enrollment, in addition to the execution of the student contract and the documentary requirements, is the payment of the tuition fee, the general deposit, the registration fee, and, in the case of applying for dormitory accommodation, the payment of the semester dormitory fee in foreign currency, and the purchase of health insurance.

(3) If the applicant has requested dormitory accommodation but does not require the accommodation after enrollment, the monthly amount of the dormitory fee paid shall be forfeited as a penalty in the first semester following enrollment, except in cases of force majeure.

(4) At the end of each academic year, by the last day of the second week following the examination period, the University shall settle the Student's financial claims arising from the Student's breach of contract (fee default, late fees, property damage claims, dormitory claims, etc.) by deducting them from the deposit amount, calculated at the mid-market exchange rate applicable on the settlement date. The Student shall be notified of the settlement via the student information system (hereinafter referred to as Neptun). If the amount of the financial claim outstanding on the part of the University cannot be fully settled from the deposit, the Student shall pay the remaining difference in euros by the deadline set by the University.

(5) The University shall settle the amount of the general deposit within 90 days of the issuance of the diploma certifying the successful completion of the final examination by the Student, or in the event of any other termination of student status, within 60 days of the end of the academic year at the latest, by deducting the University's claim, calculated at the mid-market exchange rate applicable on the day of settlement. The remaining amount of the deposit shall be transferred to the bank account specified by the Student in writing. In the event of failure to provide the Student's data, the amount shall be held in the University's settlement account until further notice by the Student.

(6) The payment of the tuition fee shall be made by bank transfer or by debit/credit card. The date of receipt of the self-financing tuition fee payment made to the University's collective account, or in the case of payment by bank card, the date of completion of the transaction shall be considered the date of fulfilment of the payments required for enrolment/admission.

(7) The tuition fee must always be paid for one academic year (two semesters) before the start of studies or after a preparatory year at the end of the academic year, by the last day of the second week following the academic period. An exception to this is if the student can clearly prove to the university that, based on their academic progress, they will successfully complete their studies in the first semester of the given academic year and receive a diploma from the university. In this case, the student is only obliged to pay the tuition fee for the first semester.

(8) The University may charge an administrative service fee for the services specified in the Annex based on Table 3/a of Annex 1.

(9) Service charges shall be paid via the University's Neptun system. Students participating in Hungarian-language programs pay the fees in forints, while international students pay, in principle, in euros.

(10) In the event of repeated non-payment, the late fee may be reimposed.

(11) The fees shall be set by the University Senate for the academic year in question.

(12) If the applicant's visa application is rejected and he/she is unable to start his/her studies at the university for this reason, he/she shall be entitled to a refund of all the amounts paid, except for the registration fee as set out in Table 3/a of Annex 1. This requires the submission of a Refund request, with the rejection decision attached.

(13) If the applicant's visa is granted, yet the applicant does not enrol at the university,

a) In case of force majeure (childbirth, accident, serious illness, or other unforeseen external cause or event): the student is entitled to a refund of 70% of the tuition fee for the first semester, the full amount of the tuition fee for the second semester, the deposit, the textbook fee, and the dormitory fee, provided that they submit documentation proving the force majeure event with diplomatic certification.

b) In case of other reasons not specified in point (a): only the deposit will be refunded.

Point (a) of this paragraph must be examined as a case of force majeure via a refund request. Force majeure is defined as childbirth, accident, serious illness, or other unforeseen external cause or event. In all cases, the reason must be supported by diplomatically authenticated documentation.

(14) In the case of new students,

a) if the student enrols at the University and requests the termination of his/her legal status by 30 September (31 October for students in preparatory training and 28 February for students in cross-semester training), he/she is entitled to a refund of the following fees: the textbook fee, 70% of the tuition fee for the first semester and the full amount of the tuition fee for the second semester. The amount of the deposit is refunded;

b) if the student enrols at the university and requests the termination of his/her legal status after 30 September and no later than 31 October (30 November for students in preparatory studies and 31 March for students in cross-semester training), he/she is entitled to a refund of the following fees: 50% of the tuition fees for the first semester and the full amount of the tuition fees for the second semester. The unused amount of the deposit will be refunded.

(15) An upper-year student may at any time during his/her studies request the termination of his/her legal status. From the tuition fees paid for the academic year, he/she is

b) entitled to receive a refund of the tuition fee for the semester that has begun, based on the provisions of § 15 (9).

(16) If the student intends to take a subject not included in the model curriculum or if the student intends to take a subject from the model curriculum over 10% of the subjects included in the model curriculum as defined in § 49(2a) of the NHE Act., he/she shall pay a separate fee for taking the subject based on the credit value of the subject taken. The fee for taking up a subject is set out in Annex 1, Table 3.

(17) The foreign student may claim back the amount remaining on his/her collective account after the termination of his/her student status using a refund request. The minimum amount that can be refunded is HUF 10,000 for HUF balances and EUR 25 for foreign currency balances.

(18) The bank costs of the refund transfer shall be borne by the student in accordance with Point 3(a) of Annex 1 to these Regulations.
